

uKhahlamba/Drakensberg Park, KwaZulu-Natal

The uKhahlamba Drakensberg Park boasts Africa's highest mountain range south of Kilimanjaro, and the largest and most concentrated series of rock art paintings in Africa – making it a world heritage site of both natural and cultural significance. The park lies in the west of KwaZulu-Natal province on the Lesotho border.

The Drakensberg was home to the San people from late Stone Age times until as recently as the 19th century. Rock art painting, depicting the San way of life, can be seen at more than 600 sites in the Drakensberg region – making up 35% of all of South Africa's San rock art sites.

South Africa's Coat of Arms features the motto, !ke e:/xarra//ke, in the Khoisan language of the /Xam people, and means "diverse people unite" or "people who are different joining together".
