

PORT OF ENTRY VISA APPLICATION

Foreigners who are not exempt from the South African visa requirement are subject to visa control and must therefore apply for and be issued with port of entry visas at a South African mission abroad, before proceeding to the Republic of South Africa. Such a visa authorises the holder to proceed to the Republic of South Africa to report to an immigration officer at a South African port of entry.

Please note:

- A port of entry visa authorises the holder to proceed to the Republic of South Africa to report to an immigration officer at a South African port of entry for the purpose of being issued with a visitor's visa (not exceeding a period of three (3) months) in respect of:
 - i. holiday
 - ii. attending business meetings
 - iii. attending conferences, workshops or events
 - iv. a person, who is the spouse or dependent child of the holder of a valid visitor's visa, study visa, treaty visa, business visa, medical treatment visa, relative's visa, work visa, retired person visa or exchange visa
 - v. studies not exceeding three (3) months
 - vi. medical treatment not exceeding three (3) months
 - vii. academic sabbaticals not exceeding three (3) months
 - viii. voluntary or charitable activities not exceeding three (3) months (applicants must be over the age of 18)
 - ix. research not exceeding three (3) months
- Applicants who intend conducting work in the Republic of South Africa, including, but not limited to, technicians, journalists and film crews, must submit a complete application for authorisation to conduct work on the visitor's visa in terms of section 11(2)
- Port of entry visas are usually issued for a single entry into the Republic of South Africa i.e. entry and use once. However, applicants who intend entering the Republic of South Africa more than once (for two or multiple entries) within the validity of the visa must confirm / complete this on the application form DHA-84 and provide a written motivation in the form of a letter in English, including reasons for the multiple entry visa and details of planned travel dates and names of third / neighbouring countries of the Republic of South Africa which the applicant will visit within the validity of the visa.
- Status / progress reports are not provided during the above-mentioned processing period. The visa processing time is a minimum of 10 working days a day after the application is received as complete. Furthermore, no 'express service' for processing visa applications is available – complete applications are adjudicated on a First-In-First-Out basis.
- Visa applications which are not complete shall not be taken in to be processed. It is therefore the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that his or her visa application is complete as per the checklist.
- In the case of inconsistencies and / or incomplete information, our office reserves the right to request the applicant to submit additional documentation to substantiate the visa application.
- Documentation that accompanies the visa application shall be original or copies authenticated by the issuing authority of the country of origin and where necessary, translated into English and certified as a correct translation by a sworn translator at the expense of the applicant. Bank statements need not be translated.
- A visa issued at a foreign mission of the Republic of South Africa shall be affixed to the passport of the applicant and shall only be valid if an entry stamp has been affixed thereto at the port of entry and the date of such entry stamp shall be the effective date.
- The Immigration Act, as amended, makes provisions for an application for a once-off renewal / extension of a visitor's visa for a further period, which shall not exceed three months – such application must be submitted in person via a VFS office in the Republic of South Africa (see <http://www.vfsglobal.com/dha/southafrica>) no less than 60 days prior to the expiry of his or her visa and if the visa was issued for less than 30 days, not later than 7 working days before the expiry of the visa. Please note that the decision of the renewal / extension of a visitor's visa is taken solely by the officials in the Republic of South Africa. The foreigner / applicant must ensure that he or she has received the extended visa i.e. the visa has been placed in his or her passport before departing from the Republic, in order not to be declared as an undesirable person due to an overstay.
