

STATE OF THE NATION ADDRESS

by President Jacob Zuma

What is the State of the Nation Address?

Every year, at the opening of Parliament, the President of South Africa delivers an important speech called the State of the Nation Address.

Why should I listen to it?

The State of the Nation Address is important for all South Africans because it tells us what government's Programme of Action is for the year ahead. The Programme of Action is government's plans for the country and people of South Africa.

By being aware of what government is doing, everyone can become involved and also take part in government's plans to build a better life for all.

When and how can I listen to the President's State of the Nation Address?

The State of the Nation Address takes place on Thursday, 9 February 2012, from 19:00.

Broadcast live on television and radio. Look out for details!

Improving education • Improving healthcare • Improving rural development and land reform • Taking forward the fight against crime • Creating decent work

For more information, contact:

GCIS PROVINCIAL OFFICES

Eastern Cape

Free State

Gauteng

Limpopo

Mpumalanga

Northern Cape

North West

Western Cape

KwaZulu-Natal

TEL NO

043 722 2602

051 448 4504/5

011 834 3560

015 291 4689

013 753 2397

053 832 1378

018 381 7069/71

021 697 0145

031 301 6787/8

Government Information Call Centre

Toll-free number (from land lines)

1020

Government Communication and Information System (GCIS)

E-mail: information@gcis.gov.za

Website: www.gcis.gov.za

South Africa United in its Diversity