

South African Women's Day 28 September 2006

50th Anniversary of the Women's March

AGE OF HOPE
through struggle to freedom

On 9th August 1956 South African women marched to the Union Building of the then apartheid government to protest against the pass laws and apartheid in general. This year South Africa is celebrating 50 years of that march of women against apartheid.

To celebrate this event the embassy will host a seminar on the 28th September at the World Trade Centre in Kungsbron (invitations only). The theme of the seminar will be "The Age of Hope, Women and business". The seminar will start at 14hrs and end at 17hrs. A reception will follow thereafter.

The Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry of South Africa, Mrs Elizabeth Thabethe will be the guest of honour.
