

Womens Day/ Heritage Days/ Roving Art Exhibition

8 September, Sweden - Stockholm

The South African Embassy in Stockholm will be organising a seminar on 8 September 2004 in conjunction with the women leagues of the seven political parties represented in the Swedish parliament. The purpose for this function will be to celebrate Women's Day as well as Heritage Day.

The Embassy has obtained confirmation that the Deputy Minister for Home Affairs, Ms N Mapisa-Nqakula, will be addressing the seminar and participate in the event. The above event is to be followed by a South Africa Day organized by a Swedish organization representing Civil Servants in the Government. This event is also being arranged with the support of the South African Embassy in Stockholm.

The Embassy is in contact with Head Office to secure a roving art exhibition during this period. A reception will be hosted to launch this exhibition. It will take place in Stockholm for a period to be agreed upon.
