Online VEC 10 notification and application form

Voters who will be voting at an international voting station that they are not registered to vote at, are required to submit an online VEC 10 special vote application by 22 April 2024 23:59

Notify IEC of intention to vote at a South Africa diplomatic mission abroad.

Voting out-of-country is considered a special vote. In a change from previous years, not all voters who intend voting out-of-country are required to apply for a special vote online, known as a VEC 10 application.

- A voter who is registered to vote out-of-country and intends voting at the accredited mission where they are registered to vote, is NOT required to submit an online VEC 10 special vote application.
- Only voters who will be voting at an accredited mission that they are not registered to vote at, are required to submit an online VEC 10 special vote application. The completion of this form below informs the Electoral Commission of their intention to vote abroad by indicating the mission at which they will be voting, once the date of the national election is proclaimed.
